EIL facilitates Dabhol Breakwater Completion

Engineers India Limited played a pivotal role in the successful berthing and discharge of GAIL's LNG vessel at the Dabhol LNG Terminal on June 2. This marks the commissioning of a state-of-the-art breakwater facility, for GAIL (India) and executed by Larsen & Toubro. This 2.3 km-long Island Rubble Mound Breakwater, constructed using over 15,500 indigenously developed ACCROPODE™ blocks and placed with 3D ECHO-SCOPE® technology for precision and integrity, enables year-round operations at the terminal.
