NOTICE

Subject: Inviting Applications for Engagement of Project Advisor cum Consultant on Contract Basis

Indradhanush Gas Grid Limited (IGGL), a Joint Venture Company promoted by GAIL (India) Limited, Indian Oil Corporation Limited, Oil and Natural Gas Corporation Limited, Oil India Limited and Numaligarh Refinery Limited, is implementing the North East Gas Grid (NEGG) Project to develop natural gas infrastructure across the North-Eastern region of India.

IGGL has recently received authorization from the Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board (PNGRB) for implementation of the Duliajan Feeder Line (DFL), a 24-inch diameter cross-country natural gas pipeline of approximately 175 km length. The project is of strategic importance and is expected to significantly enhance the capacity and revenue potential of the North East Gas Grid.

To provide strategic guidance, technical expertise, and project management support for execution of ongoing and upcoming pipeline projects, IGGL invites applications from eligible retired senior professionals for engagement as Project Advisor cum Consultant on a full-time contractual basis.

Contracts, HSE, Quality Assurance, Finance, Land Acquisition, and other supporting departments to achieve project objectives in a timely and efficient manner.

The incumbent shall be responsible for preparing and implementing detailed execution plans and monitoring physical and financial progress against approved milestones. He shall continuously review project performance, identify bottlenecks, and initiate appropriate mitigation measures to ensure adherence to the project schedule. Regular review meetings with EPC contractors, consultants, and internal stakeholders shall be conducted to ensure seamless execution and timely resolution of issues.

The role shall involve close liaison with Central and State Government authorities, district administration, statutory bodies, landowners, and local stakeholders for obtaining necessary approvals, permissions, right of use, crossing permissions, and other statutory clearances essential for project execution. The incumbent shall maintain effective relationships with various stakeholders and facilitate resolution of issues relating to land acquisition, rehabilitation, and local administration.

The Project Advisor cum Consultant shall supervise all construction activities including stringing, welding, trenching, lowering, backfilling, hydrotesting, horizontal directional drilling crossings, station works, and associated facilities. He shall ensure the availability of resources, including manpower, materials, and equipment, and shall monitor contractor performance to ensure adherence to approved specifications, standards, and construction methodologies.

The incumbent shall be responsible for ensuring strict compliance with applicable HSE requirements, PNGRB regulations, OISD standards, and industry best practices. He shall promote a culture of safety and operational excellence and strive to achieve zero major incidents throughout the execution period. Quality assurance and quality control measures shall be continuously monitored to ensure conformity with approved standards and specifications.

The incumbent shall be responsible for effective contract administration, including review and verification of bills, examination of variation proposals, evaluation of contractual claims, and resolution of technical and contractual issues in coordination with the concerned departments. Continuous monitoring of project expenditure and budgetary provisions shall be undertaken to ensure optimum utilization of resources and cost control.

The role also encompasses identification and management of project risks and implementation of suitable mitigation measures relating to statutory approvals, contractor performance, logistics, security, stakeholder management, and other project-related challenges. Critical issues affecting project progress shall be promptly escalated to the Management along with suitable recommendations for decision-making.

The incumbent shall be responsible for coordinating pre-commissioning and commissioning activities, ensuring completion of punch points, facilitating statutory inspections and approvals, and ensuring readiness for gas-in operations. He shall also ensure proper documentation and seamless handover of facilities to the Operations Department for commercial operation.

The incumbent is expected to demonstrate a high degree of ownership, accountability, and leadership while maintaining the highest standards of integrity, transparency, and professionalism. He shall foster teamwork, promote effective communication, and represent the Company before
